USA FOOTBALL ANNOUNCES FINAL ROSTERS FOR 2022 U.S. GIRLS 15U & 17U FLAG NATIONAL TEAMS

U.S. Girls Flag National Teams to compete against the world's best next summer

INDIANAPOLIS – USA Football, the sport's national governing body and member of the U.S. Olympic & Paralympic Committee, today announced players selected for the 2022 U.S. Girls 15U and 17U Flag National Teams.

Each U.S. Girls team is comprised of a 12-player active roster. The Americans will face the world's top girls flag national teams among their age group in June 2022 at an international friendly hosted by USA Football. Location and game dates of next summer's global youth flag event will be announced in upcoming months. USA Football will announce 2022 Boys 15U and 17U Flag National Team rosters in the first quarter of 2022, which will compete against boys foreign national teams at the same event as the girls.

All games will be played in a 5 vs. 5 format under International Federation of American Football (IFAF) rules. IFAF, an International Olympic Committee provisional member, is comprised of more than 70 American Football-playing member nations spanning six continents, nearly doubling its family of countries in the past 15 years.

U.S. Girls 15U Head Coach ELLIOTT GILES is the founder of the Youngstown (Ohio) Youth Flag Football Association, which has earned numerous youth flag national championships while impacting more than 20,000 boys and girls since 2007. A Miami native, Giles was inducted into the Youngstown State University Athletics Hall of Fame (2010) for his standout play at receiver for the Penguins from 1998-99. Girls 15U Assistant Coach AMANDA LARA is a current elite adult flag football player from South Florida. Owner of the all-girls South Florida Elite Flag Football organization, she shares her knowledge of the game with the next generation of players. As a high-level athlete with 10-plus years of coaching experience, Lara looks forward to both winning and building character with young athletes.

Head coach of the U.S. Girls 17U team is LIZ SOWERS, a four-time U.S. Women's Football National Team player who helped lead three U.S. teams to gold medals in IFAF World Championship play across flag (2018) and tackle (2013, 2017). In her first season as the women's flag football head coach at Ottawa (Kan.) University this past spring, Sowers guided her Braves to the NAIA's inaugural collegiate Women's Flag National Championship. Girls 17U Assistant Coach JASON KLAM of Austin, Texas, is the head coach of the Texas Fury Girls Flag Football program. Klam was named to USA Football's Athlete and Coach Advisory Subcommittee earlier this year.

Spanning eight states and more than two dozen schools, U.S. Girls 15U and 17U Flag National Team players are selected by USA Football. Athletes are evaluated at U.S. National Team High Performance Development Camps and other USA Football player evaluation events.
